NASA Honors KSC Contractors: On Sept. 21, NASA announced winners of its 1999 Minority Business awards. Dynacs Corp. was named Minority Contractor of the Year; Information Dynamics Inc. (now InDyne Inc.) was named Minority Subcontractor of the Year; and Dynamac Corp. was named Women-Owned Business of the Year. For the full story, go to the Web site: Error! Bookmark not defined.

Ribbon Cutting Ceremony: On Tuesday, Sept. 21, Center Director Roy Bridges was joined by contractor officials to dedicate the new NASA Technical Records Center. Relocated from the LC 37 blockhouse, technical records now reside in Building M6-489, which is in the south parking area between Second Street and B Avenue in the KSC Industrial Area. The move was dictated by Boeing's need for the blockhouse to support their new Delta IV contract. The new location is more accessible and is designed for future expansion.

Call For Papers At Technology 2009: The Spaceport Synergy Team, a consortium of industry, government, and academia at KSC, invites papers on spaceport technology to be submitted for presentation in special sessions at Technology 2009 in Miami, Nov. 1-3. The major topic should address identifying spaceport technologies required to support the needed revolution in space transportation. Find more information at Web site Error! Bookmark not defined.. For questions, call Wes Lattin, Lockheed Martin at 861-4032.

Book Fair: The final stops for the Book Fair are at the SSPF and OSB cafeterias today and Friday. Doors open from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Don't miss the great bargains on books, CDs and stationery.

Fall Intercenter Run -- KSC'S 1999 Fall Intercenter Run is scheduled for Oct. 6 at the Shuttle Landing Facility.
